3rd Place $50

Catrina / El Catrín Contest Rules

1. All contestants MUST register and be approved by West Valley Arts staff prior to contest check-in at 4:30 p.m.
2. There will be three entry categories: Youth 13 and under, Adult Age 14 and Over, and Group. You can only enter into one category.
3. No dressing facilities will be provided. Please arrive in costume.
4. No entries will be accepted after registration has concluded at 4:30 p.m. Contestants who are late to check-in will not be allowed in the procession.
5. The West Valley Arts reserves the right to reject any participant whose costume is deemed to be inappropriate, inadequate, or does not meet the Day of the Dead themed requirements. This is not Halloween.
6. Any participant may be disqualified from the contest by West Valley Arts staff for failure to observe any rules.
7. The Day of the Dead Celebration attracts many families each year, and we wish to maintain a comfortable atmosphere for all spectators, while honoring the tradition and roots of Day of the Dead. Good taste must be used in the creation and presentation of all Catrinas. Gore, graphic violence, nudity, swearing, or other objectionable elements may be grounds for disqualification as determined by West Valley Arts staff.
8. Any items that present the possibility of damage to the entrants, their costumes, the audience, or the facility are prohibited. Weapons and or replicas, fires and liquids are prohibited.
9. Entrants are responsible for their own belongings. We are unable to provide a secure area for personal items. Any items left over at the conclusion of the event are not the responsibility of West Valley Arts staff or the Utah Cultural Celebration Center.
