Anchor Strand 11: Relate artistic ideas and works with societal, cultural and historical context to deepen understanding.

National Film Study Standards (NFSS)

Standard 2.0 Historical and Cultural Context: Students understand that a film is both a historical/social document and a cultural artifact. Students analyze social issues presented in film and form conclusions about the ways in which film influences and is influenced by the society in which it is produced.

Standard 5.0 Cross-Curricular Connections: Students first tap their knowledge of other disciplines to study a film. They then apply what they have learned about film to other disciplines, making connections between film and literature/language arts, film and history/social studies, film and other arts, and film and sciences.
